

Position Description: Bilingual/Spanish Seasonal, Part-Time Community Outreach Associate (Philadelphia)

Position: Part-Time Community Outreach Associate (Bilingual/Spanish)	Department: 122/Community-Based Programming
Reports to: Program Manager	FLSA Status: Non-Exempt
Revised: July 2023	Classification: Seasonal, Part-Time

Position Summary

The Food Trust is seeking a professional based in Philadelphia to coordinate community outreach efforts for the Pennsylvania SNAP-Ed summer programs for approximately 10 hours per week throughout the summer. The goal of the program is to improve the likelihood that persons eligible for SNAP benefits will make healthy food choices within a limited budget and choose physically active lifestyles. The Community Outreach Associate will help promote programs; recruit for nutrition education; support policy, systems and environment (PSE) changes at sites; and boost overall use of farmers markets/farm stands and other healthy retail sites through a comprehensive community engagement strategy and other outreach and promotion activities. The Associate will work closely with Food Trust staff, local partner organizations, community groups and residents.

Essential Functions

- Attend mandatory trainings and regular check-ins with supervisor (via phone and/or in-person)
- Conduct community outreach at locations around Philadelphia to increase awareness of farmers markets and available assistance programs. Outreach includes, but is not limited to, distributing materials, using social media, and creating community partnerships
- Assist with SNAP-Ed nutrition education and cooking demonstrations at farmers markets
- Gather resident input to help inform and optimize program design, ensuring that program offerings best serve local residents (via surveys, conversations, focus groups, etc.)
- Create mutually beneficial relationships with farmers market staff and vendors
- Partner with vendors, Market Associates, Educators and other key stakeholders to implement policy, systems and environmental changes supportive of healthy behaviors
- Provide farmers market tours, introduce shoppers to vendors, and help shoppers understand the food assistance programs accepted at the market and tips for stretching food dollars by using WIC, FMNP, EBT and Food Bucks
- Attend community and civic group meetings to connect programming with community needs and build collaborative relationships with community leaders
- Build relationships with local social service organizations to make connections with Food Trust programming
- Complete program planning, tracking and evaluation requirements as needed
- Assist with evaluation efforts at the farmers market
- Carry out additional responsibilities as identified

Knowledge, Skills and Abilities

- Understanding of The Food Trust's mission, goals and objectives, and ability to work independently with a high level of energy and contribute as part of a larger team
- Strong written and verbal communication skills and effectively communicate with individuals and groups
- Possesses strong interpersonal skills as demonstrated by courteous, cooperative, and professional interaction with diverse groups of co-workers, external partners, vendors, funders and community members
- Ability to organize tasks and follow up in an efficient manner with strong attention to detail in a fast-paced environment
- Knowledge of the concepts with cultural competencies and utilizes this information for the enhancement of programming, and ability to communicate and foster relationships with a diverse group of individuals
- Ability to travel in and around the region to conduct outreach and educational programs in diverse areas
- Ability to operate a computer and use a variety of common software programs including Microsoft Office and Google Suite
- Adheres to all Food Trust and departmental policies and procedures
- Ability to work on Saturdays is preferred
- Previous experience in farmers markets a plus
